Bibliography in: The Prince and the Sufi

The poems are arranged in 12 sections by subject and motif rather than according to chronological order. They supplement those published by Klar and Ginzburg and provide additional evidence of Luzzato's poetic ability.

Me‘il tashbets : ha

In this sense, the poem is validation, justification, and an example of the very ideas it espouses. The commentary was provided by Herzl and Balfour Hakkak.

Me‘il tashbets : ha

Gabirol not only wrote personal secular poems which depart from conventions but modified existing genres by refining the diverse aspects of their conventions. Yahalom, Piyutei Shimon bar Megas Jerusalem, 1984.
