

Education journals and serials - an analytical guide

Greenwood Press - Texts and Calendars: An Analytical Guide to Serial Publications, Modern Language Quarterly: A Journal of Literary History

Description: -

A - Listening comprehension of a scene from the film The Rainmaker
 On a separate sheet of paper, put the following dialogue between Rudy, Leo Drummond and Judge Harvey into the correct order:

- $5,000, that's a bunch of money. It doesn't sound like Leo. He's a great guy.
 - There's not much of a lawsuit here. Maybe I can lean on Leo to settle. They'll throw some money at you to keep from paying him $1,000 a minute.
 - Oh really? How much?
 - He already offered me the cost of the defense.
 - $5,000.
 - Jezz... Look here, son, you'd be crazy not to take that.
 - You think so?
 - Sure.
 - Rudy, I'm a very expensive lawyer. I'm from a very expensive firm and I've handled a lot of cases. I told my clients at Great Benefit that costs alone here are going to be a big deal. And for you, too. They've authorised me to offer you and your clients $50,000 to settle this thing out. I may even be able to raise that figure up to $5,000. No admission of liability. Of course, if you say no, it's going to be World War Three.
 My turn. May I, Herr?

B - Definition and Hypothesis (Modal Verbs)
 What is happening here and what would you advise Rudy to do?
