Tistou of the green thumbs (Book, 1958) [metrics.learnindialearn.in]

The company was based at No. He's what is called a genius. Apparently Druon's first children's book after a number of successful books for adults, it is plain to see that Druon was well aware and well practiced at it. I read this because it's one of Miyazaki's favorite children's books, and I can see why: it's full of charming illustrations, flowers, a brave child, and it isn't afraid to talk about war.

Tistou of the green thumbs (1958 edition)

This book is a classic of my childhood; my old copy fell apart years ago, from having been read a hundred times, carried around everywhere, and probably dropped in the bath once or twice.

Tistou of the green thumbs (1958 edition)

THIS WAS A LIBRARY BOOK.

Summary Bibliography: Maurice Druon

Wilson, Harris editor 1960 Alexander the God Druon, Maurice 1960 Gentlemen Convicts Poli, FranÃ§ois Walford, Naomi translator 1960 Ibsen, Henrik Meyer, Michael translator 1960 The Curse of the Misbegotten 1960 Daughters of Divinity 1960 Songs of a Mad Prince Jones, T. Found this old book among my things while cleaning up today. The author exquisitely reveals how a young child can cut through adulthood's loss of innocence to make the world a better place.

Book Reviews, Sites, Romance, Fantasy, Fiction

There aren't enough words to describe the richness and joy of this book.

Tistou of the green thumbs (Book, 1958) [metrics.learnindialearn.in]

Tistou's green thumbs create beautiful flowers and plants everywhere - slums, prisons, and battlefields and bring peace and harmony everywhere he goes. Hart-Davis continued to contribute some books to the company's lists after he retired.
