APPENDIX A TO PART I OF PART III
CERTIFICATION REGARDING CORRESPONDENT ACCOUNTS FOR FOREIGN BANKS

(OMB Control Number 1540-0104)

The information contained in this Certification is sought pursuant to Sections 311(b) and 311(b)(2) of Title 31 of the United States Code as added by sections 311 and 311(b) of the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001 (Public Law 107-56).

This Certification may be completed by any foreign bank for inclusion in a correspondent account with the U.S. branch or office of a foreign bank that is not a foreign bank as required to complete this Certification.

A foreign bank is a bank registered under Foreign law and licensed outside of the United States that has no branch or office in the United States. This includes branches and offices of commercial banks or trust companies, private banks, mutual banks, thrift institutions, credit unions, and other banking organizations that are not supervised by banking supervisors of any state (as defined at 12 U.S.C. 103 (1)(g)).

A Correspondent Account for a foreign bank is any account to receive deposits from, make payments to, or otherwise conduct business with a foreign bank, or handle other financial transactions related to the foreign bank.

Special instructions for foreign banks or U.S. banks: A branch or office of a U.S. bank outside the United States is not considered a foreign bank. A branch or office of a U.S. bank outside the United States is not subject to the requirements of this Certification with respect to Correspondent Accounts with U.S. branches and offices of the same U.S. bank.

Special instructions for covering multiple branches or a single Certificate: A foreign bank may complete one Certification for its branches and offices outside the United States. The information contained in this Certification may be used to satisfy the reporting requirements for all branches and offices of the foreign bank that maintains a Correspondent Account with the U.S. branch or office of a foreign bank.

A. The undersigned financial institution, First Caribbean International Bank (Bermuda) Ltd ("Foreign Bank") hereby certifies as follows:

"Foreign bank" does not include any foreign central bank or monetary authority, but includes as a central bank, or any other entity that performs functions equivalent to those performed by any government, central bank, or monetary authority.
