So , in specific examples , is Dada.

Long And Serial Poetry The long

“ The serial form is thus based on the complex and multifarious means by which , as Rovert Creeley points out, one thing finds its place with another. As discussed in Joseph Conte's Unending Design: The Forms of Postmodern Poetry, examples in the first half of the century include Williams's Spring and All 1923 , George oppens Discrete Series 1934 , and Zukofsky's Anew 1946.

Design and Debris

In the process, Longenbach allows readers to experience the wide variety of poetries written in our time-- without asking us to choose between them. Another motif is attention paid to the difficulties inherent in language itself, a topic that any traveler confronts immediately. The journal is divided into three sections: articles, profession and pedagogy, and reviews.
