

Guro - masks, performances, and master carvers in Ivory Coast

Museum Rietberg - □ Mask Guro African Coast Art Tribal Carved Hand Wood Tribe Vintage (1454)

Description: -

- Airplanes -- Wings, Swept-back
- Unsteady flow (Aerodynamics)
- Pitching (Aerodynamics)
- Aerofoils
- Insurance, Health -- Washington (State) -- Pullman
- College students -- Health and hygiene -- Washington (State) -- Pullman
- Washington State University -- Students -- Health and hygiene
- Copyright, International
- Copyright -- United States
- Concertos (Harpsichords (3) with string orchestra) -- To 1800 -- Parts (solo)
- Israel -- Public opinion
- Public opinion -- Islamic countries
- Public opinion -- United States
- Arab-Israeli conflict -- 1993- -- Peace -- Public opinion
- Arab-Israeli conflict -- Public opinion
- Operating systems (Computers)
- Computer security
- AIX (Computer file)
- Côte d'Ivoire -- Social life and customs
- Mask makers -- Côte d'Ivoire
- Wood-carvers -- Côte d'Ivoire
- Folk dancing -- Côte d'Ivoire
- Guro (African people) -- Côte d'Ivoire -- Rites and ceremonies
- Wood-carving, Guro -- Côte d'Ivoire
- Masks, Guro -- Côte d'Ivoire
- Guro - masks, performances, and master carvers in Ivory Coast
- Guro - masks, performances, and master carvers in Ivory Coast

Notes: Includes bibliographical references (p. 515-518).
This edition was published in 2008

Filesize: 50.88 MB

simple tools such as adze, carving knife and gouge.

Baule mask — Google Arts & Culture

Photographs © Tim Hamill BAULE, SCULPTURE, Ivory Coast The Baule are one of the Akan peoples. They trace their origins to the ancient pre-colonial West African Mali empire. The trezan, the master of the land, divided the land among the people and made sacrifices.

Baule Portrait Mask with Figures Ivory Coast African Art

The style of this master sculptor with its pure lines and smooth surface shares an affinity with the most well-documented and celebrated Guro ateliers of the Baule master and the Bron-Guro master. Antelope mask of Guro secret society. The exhibits, mainly figures and masks, date from the nineteenth and early twentieth century, from the pre-colonial and colonial periods.

Mask

Tags: #Mask #(1)

Bundeskunsthalle

The Bouffard gu mask represents a young woman with features that correspond to traditional Guro ideals of feminine beauty.

Mask (1)

Omitting these markings, the sculptor concentrated on the pure lines of this face. West African sculptors traditionally used

Each village also has a diviner who is consulted before important decisions are made. The Guro peoples are governed and regulated by a council of elders, and each main family has representation on the council. Finally, he studied their views on their own work with respect to its function, its aesthetics and the creative capacity, and the interpretation of an object.

Guro Je Animal Mask Headpiece Ivory Coast African Art

Sie verfassten auch die Ausstellungskataloge gemeinsam. Baule masks range from the realistic and refined to the abstract and powerful. Guro elders Economy Although formerly the major male occupation was hunting, the Guro are now basically agriculturists whose subsistence crops include plantains, rice, and yams; their cash crops include coffee, cocoa, and cotton.

Related Books

- Historical introduction to moral philosophy
- Transform coding of images
- Obligations from nature and revelation to family-religion and worship - represented and pressed in s
- Laughing on the outside - the intelligent white readers guide to Negro tales and humor
- Richard Wagners music dramas