Fifty Years in the Church of Rome by Pastor Charles Chiniquy (page 3 of 5)

Paul to Timothy we have one of those beautiful friendships between an older and a younger man which are commonly so helpful to both. The letter never reached its destination; the postmaster was interrogated by the writer; he affirmed that he had seen no such letter, nor heard one word about it; when lo! Before all classes of his countrymen, from the lowest to the highest.

Spurgeon's Sermons Volume 16: 1870

For example, a course of sensational novel reading, which peoples the mind with unrealities, does extrude earnest thoughts on spiritual realities.

A sincere Christian and convert from the Church of Rome : exemplified in the life of Daniel Herly, a poor Irish peasant. (eBook, 1766) [metrics.learnindialearn.in]

Every discovery in science and advance in truth is a removal of some cloud which hides it from men; every noble character is bearing it about; every conquest of sin is extending it.

Aloysius Stepinac

He was known generally as an 'anti-Semite' by Jewish writers.

A sincere Christian and convert from the Church of Rome : exemplified in the life of Daniel Herly, a poor Irish peasant. By the Most Reverend Dr. Edward Synge, Late Lord Archbishop of Tuam in Ireland. (eBook, 1757) [metrics.learnindialearn.in]

There is one who wants to know truth. We are not the apologists of a discredited or doubtful cause; we press the arguments on those who oppose.

S. B. Shaw: Touching Incidents and Remarkable Answers to Prayer

Leaving the sitting-room, he ascended the stairs leading to his chamber. The same objection applies in a considerable measure to the News- paper Magazines, and to such publications as Chambers's Edinburgh Journal, which we scarcely know how properly to designate.

Mind and mood in the study of religion

He was called before the authorities for reading Christian books, but before judgment was passed upon him he begged to be allowed to ask a question. The Lord's name be praised! When I was in the galleries of Oxford, I saw many of the designs of Raphael and Michael Angelo. Oh, what a dreadful place, I was about to say, for God to dwell in! He became the second Catholic Bishop of Auckland New Zealand before returning to Ireland as Archbishop of Cashel and Emly.

The Origins of the Church at Rome

As heaven becomes clear we lose sight of earth.
