Collaborative Learning in an Online Environment

This is most common in existing institutions that already have access to the necessary devices.

Research Commentary: Technology

How long do you have to complete the entire course? Grouping was even more representational by chance than design in this study, as the groups also selected their own main mode of communication and represented each combination of electronic usage. The teaching and scientific research achievements of TV university teachers are more reflected in the theoretical research of open distance education and the exploration of teaching practice assisted by distance education technology, network learning course construction, multimedia CAI IP courseware competition, and so on. In order to foster an interactive learning community and encourage student interactions, all of the administrators, faculty, and staff in a distance education program need to collaborate with each other at an institutional level.
