Christoph Willibald Gluck 1714-1787 was probably one of the last to specify that a recorder rather than a flute be used in his Orfeo and Euridice. At the foot of this mountain there the ocean doth flow, And ships from the East Indies to the westward do go, With the red flags a flying and the beating of drums- Sweet instruments of music and the firing of guns. The only other way of accounting for it is to presume the date to be too early.
