XIII. Military Expenditure : Public Expenditure Handbook : A Guide to Public Policy Issues in Developing Countries:

The Member Nations The NSWP countries bring to the alliance uniquely different capabilities, backgrounds, and problem areas, all of which must be examined in light of their impact on the whole organization. It was split into the Northern Army Group NORTHAG made up of 1st West German Corps, 1st Netherlands Corps, 1st British Corps and 1st Belgian Corps, and the Central Army Group CENTAG , made up of 3rd West German Corps, 5th US Corps, 7th US Corps and 2nd West German Corps.

XIII. Military Expenditure : Public Expenditure Handbook : A Guide to Public Policy Issues in Developing Countries:

Among the main developing country regions, expenditure growth in Africa, East Asia and Latin America has been modest, and the share of military expenditure in GNP in the first two cases has fallen—especially in some of the more heavily indebted countries, including those in Latin America—while more rapid growth in South Asia has been swamped by a sharp decline in the heavy military spending undertaken by countries in the Middle East. Tactically, both sides concentrated on attacking supply lines, but Afghan mujahideen were well dug-in with tunnels and defensive positions, holding out against artillery and air attacks. The renewal of the Treaty of Friendship, Cooperation, and Mutual Assistance took place on April 26, 1985, marked by the signing of the Protocol of Prolongation.

A COMPARISON OF WARSAW PACT AND NATO DEFENSE ACTIVITIES, 1976

How much did the Soviets really spend on defence? For that, I multiply my values above by GDP as measured by Maddison I assume 18% of GDP spending for the Soviets in the 78-85 period , and then I multiply by population. Economic factors Population size and income levels are important factors.
