

Towards a county heritage policy

published on behalf of An Foram Oidhreachta, Dun Laoghaire Rathdown County Heritage Forum by Dun Laoghaire Genealogical Society - Town Tours and Village Walks

Description: -

- Singers -- Canada -- Biography
- Tenors (Singers) -- Canada -- Biography
- Verreau, Richard
- Detectors -- Congresses.
- Robotics -- Congresses.
- Environmental policy -- Ireland -- Dún Laoghaire.
- Conservation of natural resources -- Ireland -- Dún Laoghaire.
- Historic sites -- Conservation and restoration -- Ireland -- Dún Laoghaire.
- Historic buildings -- Conservation and restoration -- Ireland -- Dún Laoghaire.
- Towards a county heritage policy

-Notes: Includes index.
This edition was published in 1997

Filesize: 12.31 MB

Tags: #Town #Tours #and #Village #Walks

Heritage Festival

These policies may take the form of laws, regulations, incentives, media campaigns, programs or services, information - a wide range of possibilities.

World Heritage Centre

Read the research and literature about social change policy and inclusive, Learn what other communities have done, search the web for best practices, etc. Requests the World Heritage Centre, in close collaboration with the Advisory Bodies, to pursue the study of the revision of the Operational Guidelines, to integrate sustainable development, and to further consider these matters within the framework of the reflection on the Future of the Convention; 7.

Chapter 5. Choosing Strategies to Promote Community Health and Development

This means that many opportunities could be missed in the implementation of the Convention simply because those responsible may not consider them or may not know how to translate them in concrete sustainable development gains. Policymakers, if they're serious about community involvement and participation, should engage in that process as well. Once again, see for a full discussion of the levels of community participation, what they imply, and how and when they might be used.

Maryland Historical Trust

Various paragraphs of the Operational Guidelines, moreover, call for a full participatory approach in the identification, protection and management of World Heritage properties e. When they initiate a policy change process, you'll be able to approach them about , and be heard. Conversely, the current procedures of the Convention offer no clear means to encourage heritage conservation and management to better align its activities with important sustainable development objectives, such as the respect of human rights, addressing basic needs of local communities or non-depletion of natural resources.

Maryland Historical Trust

You may be working through one or more local organizations, or through a government or other agency that has a presence in the community. Are there things that they should know best practices, for instance, or the results of research on the issue? World Heritage, of course, is also essential to the spiritual wellbeing of people for its powerful symbolic and aesthetic dimensions. This is the time to recruit members of the planning group, and to ask people to pull in others they know.

Town Tours and Village Walks

It's generally far more productive, however, if policymakers and the community can work as partners, rather than as adversaries. In this context, World Heritage sites could provide the testing ground where innovative approaches could be applied.

Related Books

- Environmental microthesaurus - a hierarchical list of indexing terms used by NTIS.
- A glacial study of central Quebec- Labrador
- Climbing the corporate ladder
- Seeing without eyes
- Jinsai nissatsu. Tawaregusa. Fujingen. Mukaukyō