Ireland became part of the United Kingdom in 1801 with the signing of the Act of Union.

Irish history

Seven years later, the French Revolution broke out, and Louis XVI was guillotined.

Celtic Ireland in the Iron Age: the Celts

History of the United Kingdom: The Vikings In the latter half of the 9th century, the Norse people from Scandinavia began to invade Europe, with the Swedes putting down roots in Eastern Europe and the Danes creating problems throughout Western Europe, as far as North Africa. Later Fitzgerald and his men returned to Dublin but this time they were shut out. However an invasion never took place - not because the Irish would be too hard to defeat, but simply because the Romans decided it wouldn't be worth the effort.

Living History

In 1745 St Patricks Hospital for the mentally ill was built and in 1752 Rotunda Maternity Hospital. The plan provided for two ESB turf-fired power stations, the development of 24 bogs to produce over a million tonnes of sod-peat per annum, the building of a moss peat litter factory and the establishment of a peat research station Department of Industry and Commerce 1946.
