As the oldest, I was exposed.

Evelyn Nesbit, Harry Thaw, Stanford White, And The Trial Of The Century

Girls seemed to find White's money and power irresistible, enabling him to keep several affairs going at a time. Using testimony from Evelyn Nesbit and character witnesses, the prosecution painted a picture of a deeply disturbed man, but one who nonetheless knew exactly what he was doing when he killed Stanford White. One wet November day, seven years after my mother had shown me the fragments in the Rond Point, I was crouching in the woods just below the place where the Rhododendron Drive burst out into the fields on its way up to Box Hill.

Mapping Stanford White's Most Beautiful NYC Buildings

He felt that music ought to be concerned only with the musical materials themselves. His daughter, Pamela, was raised by her mother. For some reason, however, after the call my aversion lifted, and I did a little research about Stanford—the first in my life.

Daytonian in Manhattan: Stanford White's 1893 Metropolitan

In keeping with this aesthetic, my husband and I decided to move an old house to the Place rather than build a new one. The room reverberated with architectural terms.

A Look at Architect Stanford White's Most Beautiful Spaces

There was going to be a terrible crash, but I felt no dread. This Saturday marks the 110th anniversary of Stanford White's death; White was, notoriously, shot on the roof of Madison Square Garden by Harry Kendall Thaw, the millionaire who was married to the woman with whom White was having an affair.

Evelyn Nesbit, Harry Thaw, Stanford White, And The Trial Of The Century

He suffered from, incipient , and severe liver deterioration. Faced with a two-prong attack from White and her mother, Evelyn reluctantly agreed to a hastily thrown-together plan to enroll her in a boarding school in New Jersey.
