Complete Poems and Selected Letters of John Keats

You hear about Keats' life and you think his poetry is going to be all sex and death from tuberculosis at age 26.

The Complete Poems by John Keats

I'm happy with the book, and while I have moods when I find some of Keats' work cheesy, overall I enjoy him and see no reason to mark this collection down. This book consists mainly of Endymion, alongside many other smaller works.

Agnes and Other Poems 519 Letter to Leigh Hunt, August 13? Keats tendency to merge with abstraction was also expressed in some of his sonnets and odes. I was happy that he was aware of it, and I know he was on the right path to become an original free spirited poet. While he was criticized by many for his politics, his immediate circle of friends and family immediately recognized his genius.

John Keats

I am not a Keats expert, but I can now easily recognize quotations from Keat's odes, sonnets, and other poems. Favorites: Fall of Hyperion Ode on a Grecian Urn Ode to Indolance On seeing the Elgin Marbles To Sleep Ode to melancholy Bright star To autumn So yeah, I guess I love the same Keats poems that everyone has for the past 200 years.

Complete Poems and Selected Letters of John Keats

Keats's expression is rich and beautiful, and also passionate and erotic.

Complete Poems and Selected Letters by John Keats

Probably the finest English poet.

The Complete Poems by John Keats

May be very minimal identifying marks on the inside cover. Or I was stopped by turns of phrase that were awkward, and sometimes almost goofy.
