Mystagogical Reflections on the Texts of the Roman Missal, Third Edition

All we have to do is to break with the past, with the earthly things that kept us from God.

My Reflections....: Reflection for July 14, Tuesday; Fifteenth Week in Ordinary Time: Matthew 11:20

Rather, the Eucharistic bread and wine we share, these are the enduring things of heaven, the body and blood of Christ. Excerpts from the English translation of The Roman Missal © 2010, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. So this prayer gives us the opportunity to consider how the members of the Sunday assembly look forward to Christmas.

The Roman Missal

I recommend this book for anyone interested in collects, in the development of liturgical texts, or in the shifts in recent theological emphases. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Sixteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

For me, it provides history of collects going back to our shared pre-Reformation Western Christian heritage, a heritage often evident even still in contemporary liturgy. In the absence of the Apostles he had no one to help him—he too needed a rest.

Reflections on the Sunday Collects of the Roman Missal. (1947 edition)

This heavenly wisdom, in turn, helps us to conduct our earthly undertakings in a way that does not hinder our single-minded pursuit of Christ and his company. There is an obvious reference to Ephesians 1:10 in dispensationem plenitudinis temporum instaurare omnia in Christo quae in caelis et quae in terra sunt in ipso as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

The Roman Missal

He has left to his Church the holy sacrament of penance in which he guarantees us complete and entire remission of all past sins if we confess them with true sorrow. Many parishes provide the opportunity for the Sacrament of Penance in preparation for Christmas. This collect originates in the Gregorian sacramentary 526 as the collect for the morning eucharist at St Peter's basilica on the Day of Pentecost.

New Liturgical Movement: The Collects of the Roman Missal compared...

This free service is from the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions FDLC , originally established as an Ad Hoc Committee for Mystagogical Reflection of the texts and implementation of the Roman Missal, Third Edition following the national meeting of 2010. Who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Fourth Sunday of Advent Collect Pour forth, we beseech you, O Lord, your grace into our hearts, that we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ your Son was made known by the message of an Angel, may by his Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of his Resurrection.

Christ the King

Jesus began to reproach the towns where most of his mighty deeds had been done, since they had not repented. The Nativity is also called the feast day of our salvation.
