Social role valorization

It will be essential reading for professionals, academics, carers, policymakers and others involved in any part of the spectrum of human services, and will serve as an excellent introduction for students entering the caring field. For example, if an organization discriminates against devalued people, a court case is likely to be slow, expensive and highly reliant on legal expertise.

How this process of NVA empowerment would affect participants in actions in support of devalued people remains to be investigated. Mental Retardation, 38 2 , 105-123. There has not been a culture of PASS such as that which influenced policy, practice, and research in North America and the United Kingdom in the 1960s and 1970s.

A Quarter

. We process information about our environment and the people in it, rapidly and continually and much of it is done unconsciously. Therefore, it is all the more surprising that it lacks an index, particularly as it is written to be accessible across the boundaries of different specialisms.
