They must make a habit of adaptation and agility and codify it in our doctrinal understanding. They are, as a result, simply talking past each other. An argument for B 3 has yet to be given, but there are two on offer.

Externalism

When P perceives round things, he undergoes perceptual states of type T2. The internalist might seek to exploit this point by conceding the general object—dependency of certain types of psychological states, whilst resisting the conclusion that the types are individuation—dependent on contextual factors. The conjunction of i and ii can then be said to constitute first person authority.

Challenges to Metaphysical Realism (Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy)

This response does not answer the GCT argument, however. Although Bert and Ernie have always been physically and behaviorally the same, they differ in their contents. Where you will learn University Park Campus covers 300 acres, with green spaces, wildlife, period buildings and modern facilities.
