Once God or Satan is accepted as the first cause of everything which happens in the mortal world, nothing is left to chance. That the same authority which can force a citizen to contribute threepence only of his property for the support of any one establishment may force him to conform to any other establishment in all cases whatsoever? I am not afraid of any god in the universe who would send me or any other man or woman to hell. The process was infinite, just as is the ever-expanding language.

If maturity means becoming a cynic, if you have to kill the part of yourself that is naive and romantic and idealistic - the part of you that you treasure most - to claim maturity, is it not better to die young but with your humanity intact? I think that what we're seeking is an experience of being alive, so that our life experiences on the purely physical plane will have resonances within our own innermost being and reality, so that we actually feel the rapture of being alive.
