I suppose the aesthetic that might come out of this is a kind of visual conviction that reflects a unique route taken? Here, the cycles of nature are absorbed into quotidian life; in the summer, there are just two to three hours of dark, prompting outdoor activity of all kinds. Participants will make two individual sculptures derived from one image.

Can you explain its role? Many of these works also have a strong satirical edge to them. His artworks explore craftsmanship and the roles of sculpture in our modern society.

Gallery Heinzel presents contemporary art by Doug Cocker

It is easy to overlook the understated panache that lies behind the manner in which Cocker can find magisterial balances of form, tone and - in his most recent pieces of wood construction - colour.
