International Responsibility for Hostile Acts of Private Persons against Foreign States

This statute was enacted or suffered to continue by men who helped found the Republic and formulate the Bill of Rights, and although it obviously denies enemy aliens the constitutional immunities of citizens, it seems not then to have been supposed that a nation's obligations to its foes could ever be put on a parity with those to its defenders.

Customary IHL

Also of importance are articles 12 and 13 of the third Geneva Convention of 1949, on the treatment of prisoners of war. The right of self-defense in such circumstances does not include interference with legitimate law enforcement actions of a coastal nation.

Divergent Approaches to Determining Responsibility for Genocide

The following shall constitute acts of aggression, regardless of a declaration of war by a State, group of States, organization of States, or armed groups, or by any foreign entity whatsoever:

Chapter VII

Nothing in these rules negates or otherwise overrides a commander's obligation to take all necessary and appropriate actions for his unit's self-defense.
