First Committee 165-0-3 UNGA: 179-0-5 The United States insisted on a vote and abstained, together with Israel and the Marshall Islands joined in the GA by Palau and Micronesia. Breakout and diversion concerns rise with total stocks, flows, and potential flows in the form of production capacity; theft concerns rise mainly with number of sites on the supposition that more sites are more difficult to guard, given limited resources and with flows that provide opportunities for thieves. The bulk of these 276 are army signal troops who operate the UN forces communications network, and the rest are staff and air personnel.
