ABSOLUTIONS AND ACTS OF DISOBEDIENCE: EXCOMMUNICATED AND SOCIETY IN FOURTEENTH

These monks were not stupid; they knew people would come to plunder their possessions, a reason why the round towers had been built.

Eigse : A Journal of Irish Studies

In reality, the hospitality on offer varied greatly, depending both on the wealth and resources of the monastery in question and also on the status of the guest. Anyone who had an interest in learning from the monks would always be made more than welcome to visit, so many took the monks upon their hospitality. Hall File Size : 39.

Hospital, Medieval and Renaissance History of the

There are enough pieces of evidence now that the historical background of the hospitality industry will pull us back to prehistoric times. The Christian ideal may have been to treat all people as equals, but in reality, richer and more influential guests received better food and accommodation than an ordinary person who turned up at the monastery by chance.

Historical Background of the Hospitality Industry

The monastery was destroyed by English troops in 1398 and today is in ruins. We are delighted to offer our customers an Annual Membership programme that offers many benefits to users. What were they used for? Fraser, James, William Mackay, and Scottish History Society.
