Katherine Swynford: History of a Medieval Mistress: The History of a Medieval Mistress

The cons: The evidence about Katherine's life is rare. It was a startling rise for a woman who, 15 years earlier, had been branded a slut and a whore and publicly repudiated by her lover John of Gaunt. I've been reading Alison Weir's history books since 1992, as her topics encompass the historical periods I've been interested in for a long time now.

Katherine Swynford

Both Fastré and his brother Eustace died in the 1330s. About the Author: JEANNETTE LUCRAFT graduated from the University of Huddersfield, where she was awarded a first-class history degree.

Katherine Swynford : The History of a Medieval Mistress (Paperback)

Katherine Swynford remains a figure for our admiration and our speculation.

Katherine Swynford : The History of a Medieval Mistress (Paperback)

As Weir shows, this is a reasonable attitude, because of the many demonstrations of love towards Katherine from the royal children for whom she was governess.
