Bid to more than double number trustees on Board of Deputies falls short

In the case of Mohammedan executors such a title was created for the first time by the probate and Administration Act.

Master of the High Court, Western Cape Division, Cape Town v Van Zyl (A276/2018) [2019] ZAWCHC 23; [2019] 2 All SA 442 (WCC) (6 March 2019)

In consequence, such petitions, al- though presented to the Junior Lord Ordinary, are not to be considered Outer House processes which fall asleep by lapse illegality of the Magistrates' actings as trustees, and, though it became unnecessary to sequestrate and appoint a factor, found the Magistrates liable in expenses. Until Justinian's day this consequence could only be avoided by not accepting the inheritance, but Justinian made one of his most famous reforms by introducing the beneficium inventaril, i.
