In 2013, PokerStars was invited by Cancer Research UK to send a team of programmers to join others at the GameJam event in London as part of its Citizen Science Project. Within a few months we had helped to develop and funded a new mobile gaming app that gamifies real cancer data analysis and helps researchers find genetic clues about cancer. Helping Hands and CARE announced our partnership in 2013 and shortly afterwards called upon our staff and players to assist in an emergency appeal for the victims of Typhoon Haiyan in the Philippines.

Their aim over the next 20 years is to reach at least 3 in 4 people beating cancer. . One of his short story collections, Prime Number 1970 , was equally as short and entertaining the 1978 and 1987 Sphere editions with some excellent art work.

IN OUR HANDS: Battle for Jerusalem (2017)

Like the previous Harrison books I've read, this was light reading with a straight forward linear plot with random burst of humor dotted within the twenty-five chapters.
