White people are not forced to question their behaviors because the system is set-up to afford them that luxury. Customer service is our top priority. There are a few of things to keep in mind when it comes to understanding power and privilege.

ERIC

This report draws on national studies to examine why millions of children continue to be denied the fundamental right to primary education. The answer is simple; commit yourself to learning.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion 101: How to Make a Difference

Like all children, children with disabilities have ambitions and dreams for their futures.
