Ronald Reagan: An American Hero

Reagan left office with record-low unemployment and a booming economy; the budget deficits, which engulfed government in his wake, were obscured by the optimism of the Reagan era.

Ronald Reagan an American Hero by Ronald Reagan

In 1996, Reagan ran as republican candidate for governor of California, and won the election. He married Jane Wyman, had two children, but divorced her eight years.

In the end, most Americans forgave Reagan for Iran-Contra, and his popularity once again soared in the wake of his Summit meetings with Mikhail Gorbachev. After all of that Reagan moved to Des Moines, Iowa to start working at WHO studios where he began all his training, which eventually would lead him to Hollywood California.
