My brother was visiting from New Zealand and they always make sure they have National trust and English Heritage membership which they buy in NZ. It even boasts its own airfield.

Audley End House and Gardens Things to do

Howard's new mansion was the largest private house in the country, and cost its builder an estimated £200,000, an astronomical sum in the early 17th century. He became Lord Treasurer in 1614 but was convicted of corruption, extortion and bribery four years later for money he had embezzled to help pay off his debts. When Charles remodelled Windsor Castle he no longer came to Audley and the house suffered from neglect.
