10 Ancient American Civilizations

When the crania are compared to each other they form three distinct groups. We do not believe they are all authentic, but what you have read here constitutes only 1% of what we have in our archive.

Prehistoric America plus the Ainu and Jomon

Scholars have long theorized that the first humans to populate the North American continent likely traversed a long-vanished land bridge that once linked Siberia and Alaska over the Bering Strait. Tasa's work includes metric and non-metric data for crania, post-cranial remains and dentition. Archaeological levels that are well excavated yield dates between  $32,160 \pm 1,000$  years BP and  $17,000 \pm 400$  BP.
