Lyman Ward (clergyman)

Again, the school would be placed in a precarious financial struggle, but one thing in its favor was that the school once again would be directed by one of Dr.

Camp Hill

The university has ROTC programs for students interested in commissioning with both the Navy and Marine Corps. The school also attained the long-sought-after accreditation in The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Prospects for the school brightened considerably when it became a state-approved school in 1911 and was hence eligible for several thousand dollars of public aid.

Contribute Help us build our profile of Lyman Ward! Kirkland's major achievements were a new dormitory, football stadium, well-stocked lake, and perhaps that of which he was most proud - a new barn - at the time thought to be one of the finest in the county. He was laid to rest by his beloved Mary in a grove of trees on The Southern campus.
