The economic context of Hong Kong

With persistent fiscal deficits across much of the region, both forms of distribution have come under severe strain. The United States has significant interests in seeking Hong Kong's support in the global fight against terrorism, promoting economic and business relationships, maintaining a cooperative law enforcement relationship, and continuing access to Hong Kong as a port of call for our ships and aircraft.

Arab Political Economy: Pathways for Equitable Growth

On a year-on-year basis, total exports of goods recorded accelerated growth in the fourth quarter thanks to the further revival of import demand in many major markets, especially the Mainland. The question is whether these successes can serve as broader models for the region. More recently, Mr Humphrey has acted as a consultant, assisting start-ups in Asia with their business and corporate development before joining the EU-ASEAN Business Council in June 2014.
