ite missa est

Too many of us end our lives, but few of us see them finished. It is undoubtedly one of the most ancient Roman formulae, as may be seen from its archaic and difficult form. Vincent College in Latrobe, Pa.

The word “Mass” and the meaning of “Ite, Missa est.”

The Catholic Encyclopedia provides some analogous cases. The video below shows the sequence of ceremonies leading up this point. I am so blessed to have had this app brought to my attention and I look forward to seeing more from Earblast.

ite missa est

The schola may continue to sing while the server transfers the Missal from the Gospel side of the altar to the Epistle side, and the priest covers the chalice; these are indications that time is running out.

Ite, Missa Est

If there is no sermon, it is sung immediately after the Gospel there is no sung response after the Gospel ; the priest will go to the centre of the altar and will be ready to intone it immediately. It is accordingly often useful to sing pieces whose length can be varied, such as psalm verses alternating with the Communion antiphon the schola can sing as many or as few verses as time permits, as long as they sing the Gloria Patri before the last antiphon. This app will be updated daily with new Daily Reflections and weekly with the Sunday Homily.
