Valleys lay in sunny vapor, And a radiance mild was shed From each tree that like a taper At a feast stood. After receiving his degree in 1656 he took holy orders and worked for ten years as a parish priest in Credenhill, near Hereford.

Centuries, Poems, And Thanksgivings by Thomas Traherne

From pestilence, fire, flood, and sword We have been spared by thy decree, And now with humble hearts, O Lord, We come to pay our thanks to thee. But remember that sometimes the burning takes such a long time, and in that time, sometimes, poems are born. Authorized users may be able to access the full text articles at this site.
