Mimmo Paladino Prints For Sale

Mimmo Paladino played a leading part in the international revival of painting towards the end of the 1970s.

Artist

Other exhibitions were held at the Kunsthernes Hus in Oslo 1985 , at the Kulturhaus in Graz and the Moderne Galerie Rupertinum in Salzburg 1987. He attended the Liceo Artistico of Benevento Benevento Art High School from 1964 to 1968, when minimalism and conceptualism dominated the international art scene.

Invitations to exhibit this work soon followed from a wide variety of galleries. This was then also put on at the Kestner-Gesellschaft in Hanover, the Mannheimer Kunstverein in Mannheim and the Groninger Museum in Groningen.

Artist

He put on personal exhibitions at the Villa delle Rose, Bologna 1990 , the Belvedere in Prague 1991 , the Museu de Arte in San Paolo 1992 , the Forte Belvedere in Florence 1993 , and the Museo de Arte Contemporaneo in Monterrey 1994. One of the murals was shown at the Toselli Gallery in Milan, while the other appeared in Naples, at the Lucio Amelio gallery. He is an accomplished printmaker and sculptor as well as a painter, and he played a central role in the 1970s revival of painted art.

At the same time, two major personal exhibitions were dedicated to him, the first at the Harbour Museum in Newport, Los Angeles, and the second at the Musée Saint-Pierre Art Contemporain in Lyon, in 1984. The work is set to music written especially for the occasion by Brian Eno. Mimmo Paladino had created his two significant tempera murals by 1977, which helped to secure his reputation as an artist on the global stage.
