You may take a few of them in the order following. They cannot abide to have their sores ript up, and the evil of their ways, dis- covered.

The Backslider Characterized; Or, the Evil and Danger of Defection, Described

Under the law, God appointed porters to keep watch at the doors of the temple, that nothing might enter in to defile that house which was the dwelling-place of his name. As for the other sermons that Mr. In all your works or duties of obedience, keep your eye upon the chief corner-stone that God hath laid in Zion.

The Backslider Characterized; Or, the Evil and Danger of Defection, Described

I say, I will speak a little of this defection or falling off from Christ. You will grieve the hearts of the godly, whose hearts God would not grieve. The believer, when he is left to backslide, or to fall into any sin, howls and groans under it; it lies heavy on him, like a burden too heavy for him to bear.
