The Divine Wind: Japan's Kamikaze Pilots of World War II by Author Saul David, PhD

Involved in both was Colonel , who proposed a Nationalist dictatorship, combined with a state-run economy. When I think of your future, and the long life ahead, it tears at my heart.

Japanese nationalism

As co-opted by the Japanese, it originally was simply used in this sense to wish long life to the Emperor and by extension the Japanese state. The attitude reinforced from 1905 was that Japan was to be a powerful nation, equal at least to the Western powers.

Religion in Japan

It evolved throughout the and to justify an increasingly totalitarian government and , and provided a political and ideological foundation for the actions of the Japanese military in the years leading up to World War II. They included: Black Ocean Society, 1881 , Amur River Society, or Black Dragon Society, 1901 , movements dedicated to overseas Japanese expansion to the north; Japanese Patriotic Society, 1919 , founded by ; Anti-Red League founded at the same time as the ; and the State Basis Society founded in 1924 by Baron , for the preservation of the unique national character of Japan and its special mission in Asia.
