Petersburg at the beginning of 1970s was extremely influential in the then seemingly invisible culture of the Russian literary underground.

Modern Irish Poetry: An Anthology by Patrick Crotty

As we know only too well, Russia has always been a huge and bipolar country. Ideally, you should keep old books and manuscripts in protective boxes or sleeves made from acid-free materials. Dmitri Grigoriev often portrays urban blight and paranoia, while Asya Shneiderman gets an inspiration from shades of the Cimmerian or even biblical past, seemingly quite distinct and pictorial in her inner sight.

Modern Russian Poetry: An Anthology With Verse Translations by Vladimir Markov

In his essay Catastrophes in the Air, Joseph Brodsky defined the way in which writers of that strand worked.

What Is the Best Way to Store Old Books and Manuscripts? Some of them were particularly inspired by Boris Pasternak and Osip Mandelstam, some others by Velimir Khlebnikov and other Russian Futurist poets. Alongside the fellow poets of their generation, they are destined to shape up poetry in the Russia of the future.

Modern German poetry, 1910

Some of the Russian poets of those days chose to refrain from publishing anything openly, others were banned from publishing. You should also avoid treating leather bindings with oil; instead, consult a professional restoration technician.
