NYS Applied Behavior Analysis: FAQs

In selecting students for the program, priority is given to applicants from historically disadvantaged backgrounds. Our vision is to provide leadership for a system that yields the best educated people in the world.

Issues in Higher Education

Additionally, most universities have shut down their study abroad programs and canceled school-sanctioned travel. Funds that become available as a result of such withdrawals should be used in support of other program students or other program needs. Similarly students who were non-matriculated are not considered as transfer students.

Office of the Secretary of Higher Education

Students withdrawing from a campus will not receive a refund for fees or other costs paid from Educational Opportunity funds. The NYLBA and NYCBA examinations are typically scored within 45 days of the last day of the month when the examination was administered.

Opportunity Program Administrators : An Analysis of Higher Education in New York State by Ervin J. Gross (1990, Trade Paperback) for sale online

The first unit, of what would become a university-wide opportunity program, enrolled 249 students at the State University College at Buffalo.

Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP)

The purpose of these Programs is to provide students who demonstrate potential for academic success with the educational supportive services and supplementary financial assistance they need to become successful college students. These programs provide financial assistance to state and local educational agencies, institutions of higher education, community and faith-based organizations, and other entities.

About NYSED

Most continue to live in New York, enriching its economic and social fabric. For us in higher education, that process begins by recognizing where our rhetoric may be at odds with reality -- and then doing something about it.
