Newsflash

Her responsibilities include production of regular analyses on topical issues, publication of thought leadership reports, research program management, and internal research support. Question 2: Fiscal policy: Do you expect the Chancellor of the Exchequer to announce higher taxes or lower public spending in 2021? If you participate you will be asked if you want to enter into a prize draw - the winner will get £25 or high street vouchers. It would be premature to call it the year of levelling up, but it should be the year levelling up starts.

Financial Times 2018 Survey Top 10 Executive Education

Published in the Financial Times November 18, 2020 for the second consecutive year, The Diversity Leaders 2021 is an independent survey of more than 100,000 employees covering a range of sectors across: Austria; Belgium; Denmark; Finland; France; Germany; Ireland; Italy; Luxembourg; the Netherlands; Norway; Poland; Spain; Sweden; Switzerland and the UK.

Sustainable packaging: Give consumers what they want

Almost half of healthcare employees are struggling to cope mentally due to the pandemic, a new report suggests. There are some important sectors of the economy — large parts of the creative sector, for instance — that would in normal times be thriving, but which may suffer significant job losses and take time to recover fully. But I am not expecting these.
