The third person -s in English is a good example of a redundant morpheme because in English finite verbs almost always have subjects, so the third person status of the verb is already determined which is also low in salience, and hence a prime candidate for being ignored.

unit 1 vocab

I agree that non-discussion tools to comment and annotate are very needed. The user 18 chooses images for the album 26 by selecting one or more albums previously defined in step 420. .

This is a great thread, and this, I think, is my first post to the Moodle community.

G is for Guided Discovery

I dislike lots of text or storytelling or even forum dialogue. The board may also
