'I was bought for 50,000 rupees': India's trafficked brides

Rural India is the India of age-old patterns where tradition is the principal dynamic of society, where outsiders come and go but life continues, often without much change. It is important to note that, in all likelihood, these developments did not affect people living in large parts of the subcontinent

—such as those in the south, and tribal communities inhabiting the forested hill and plateau areas of central and eastern India. My point is, if Existence of western culture has given milestone to compare Hindu culture, they should blame no one for that, its only the Indians who are responsible for it.
