Adult Basic Education, Adult Secondary Education, and English as a Second Language Instructors

It is a listening and speaking test. Assign the students their roles in their pairs.

English as a Foreign Language

At no cost to students, the Adult Education program provides instruction to students who are interested in improving their basic skills in math and reading, attaining a GED, or developing their English language abilities. This time the students should try to perform the role play without notes. Programs can be made up of informal sessions that focus on conversation, or they may include more structured courses that focus on written and oral proficiency and offer credits.
