Ancient Greece: The Cradle of Western Civilization

Many people travel to Greece to enjoy the landscape, but because the land is rocky and mountainous, the ancient Greeks turned to the sea to become excellent farmers. They also monopolized the best farmland, and some even claimed to be descended from the. Still, it has remained popular and frequently reproduced, lending it a cultural currency, as seen in the official seal of the 1972 Apollo XVII moon landing mission.

Greek and Roman Art and Architecture

Two other keys to understanding Western art lie in the changes that occurred in how the art was made and who it was made for. They raised armies and collected taxes.
