United States obscenity law

In January, 1881, Companies C, D, E and K, left Fort Assiniboine, forming part of the command under Captain Morris, sent down Milk River for the purpose of intercepting and attacking a party of hostile Sioux under Sitting Bull. Second, national ownership of the area was resolved not by war or purchase but by treaty, as the two sides negotiated a boundary dispute.

Some Americans nurtured the idea of a Pacific-coast harbor, but most did not envision the United States expanding its holdings beyond the continental divide. During the advance to its position, and after reaching it, it was exposed to artillery fire for an hour and a half without the opportunity of replying. Sandhills and buttes cover parts of the north central U.
