Vietnam: The Real War

Similar, even larger, atrocities were conducted by VC and NVA units—such as an NVA attack on a Buddhist orphanage at An Hoa in September 1970 or the execution of 5,000 people at Hue during the Tet Offensive—but the concept of American soldiers killing civilians in cold blood was more than many Americans could bear.

Interactive Vietnam War Map

This presented the new MACV commander Military Assistance Command, Vietnam , General William C. However, many US citizens did not approve of the move to invade Laos and Cambodia, promoting protests up and down the country. An American medic treated him during World War II, probably saving his life.
