The Belly of Paris Summary & Study Guide

He brings a lot of the action into the book with his beliefs and everything he has gone through, also, the fishermen wives have it in for him but in that part he was very much inactive and those women walked all over.

Style and Characteristic Analysis of Belly of Paris by Emile Zola

The employees of each pavilion tended to frequent the cluster of bistros nearest them, and thus a distinct fishiness would perfume one place, an astringent leekiness another.

Le Ventre de Paris

It's easy to get swept away in it.

Les Halles: A Travel Guide to the 'Belly of Paris'

The government sits in the background, watching all, making plans.

Les Halles: A Travel Guide to the 'Belly of Paris'

The novel was newly translated in 1955 by and for under the title Savage Paris but this has long been out of print. Someday I may return to it, and work my way through it again to see if it comes across more clearly.

Le Ventre de Paris

The fat and the thin refers at the most basic to the main characters, two half brothers who are opposites in appearance and character.

Le Ventre de Paris

Overcome by the sights and smells of Les Halles, I could not even summon the requisite sympathy for Florent, our hapless would-be protagonist.
