South Africa and the United Nations, 1946

SWAPO leaders Aaron Mushimba and Hendrik Shikongo were sentenced to death under the Terrorism Act on 12 May 1976. All these territories including East Jerusalem remain occupied territories and Israel has continued to have the status of occupying Power.

In the photograph are Ron Taylor, Dennis Brutus and Wilfred Brutus. While the faithful discharge of the trust was assigned to the Mandatory Power alone, the duty and the right of ensuring the performance of this trust were given to the League with its Council, the Assembly, the Permanent Mandates Commission and all its Members within the limits of their respective authority, power and functions, as constituting administrative supervision, and the Permanent Court was to adjudicate and determine any dispute within the meaning of Article 7 of the Mandate. The various textual amendments included in the Council resolution being approved by the Council, acting by unanimity, were thereby approved by Great Britain speaking in its double capacity.

Apartheid, International Law, and the Occupied Palestinian Territory

The Court will thus first address the question whether it possesses jurisdiction to give the advisory opinion requested by the General Assembly on 8 December 2003. The legal terms employed in Article 22—trust, tutelage, mandate—cannot be taken literally as expressing the definite conceptions for which they stand in law.

Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples

But it cannot be said<sup>1</sup> that the Court is a supervisory organ with regard to the exercise of the Mandates, because its function is strictly legal and not administrative or political, and because a Court cannot on its own initiative institute supervisory measures, its functions being exercised only at the request of the parties, which virtually negatives the effectiveness of the supervision. Even so, the apartheid system was enforced with even more rigidity in South West Africa than in South Africa itself and the human rights of the people of South West Africa were constantly and systematically violated, in particular through the system of contract migrant labour. Carstens was also instrumental in the establishment of the Canadian IDAF.
