Example

The reasoning given was not anti-Christian per se; it was similar to that of the constitutional separation between state and religion in the USA. Nonetheless, until 1936 the Nazi government tried to defuse the matters, eschewing the explicit reprisals against the Confessing Church clergy.

Ryan Buesnel

Eventually, we all left for the night. The first comment in this thread from FLPatriot should suffice to make that point. By 1934, the Confessional Church had declared itself the legitimate Protestant Church of Germany.

. It is true that the traditional Protestant and Catholic churches were threatened by the rise of the Nazi-inspired Deutsche Christen movement, and had the Nazis won the war, it is likely that other denominations would have been subsumed into the Deutsche Christen. Rudolf Hess had an interest in Anthroposophy.

Then they came for the Trade Unionists, and I did not speak out— because I was not a Trade Unionist. By 1937 the Nazis decided to eradicate the Protestant church but this had to be cautiously carried out due to foreign policy trepidations.
