Naser

Nevertheless, the voyage of Dias was fraught with consequences, for at the time the search for a passage to the Indies was a move in the great struggle between the Moslem world and Christendom.

Homeward Journey (October 1993 edition)

Homeland and Other Poems, Ogaga Ifowodos first collection of poems, employs the idiom of stubborn hope and healing laughter to explore childhood lore, the pains and pleasures of existence, political heroism and villainy, love and tenderness. We were taken in and stayed there from the first of Shaban until the middle of Ramadan.

Bartolomeu Dias

I had two reasons for doing this: one was my poverty, and the other was, as I said to myself, that he now imagines that I have some claim to being learned, but when he sees my note he will figure out what my worth is, so that when I go before him I need not be ashamed.

Homeward Journey (October 1993 edition)

They allow researchers to share insights into these issues and to critique recent developments in the field as well as long established practices.
